

AI tool analyses mammograms to identify signs of breast cancer	Computer vision Models trained to process and analyse images.
AI tool looks at health records and identifies patients most at risk of heart conditions	Classification Categorising data into different groups.
AI-powered physiotherapy app providing videos tailored to user symptoms	Decision tree A flowchart structure that breaks down large, complex decisions into smaller, more manageable decisions.
GPs enter a patient's conditions into the AI chatbot, which responds with a list of recommended drugs, their possible adverse effects, and drug-drug interactions	Large Language Model A computational model capable of processing language.
AI-powered A&E demand forecasting tool	Time series A model trained on historical data, used to predict future trends.	